Class Descriptions

Friday Social Dance with Coaches

Friday, 6:00 pm

All Coaches

Our two hour opening night Social Dance begins with filling out your Dance Card. Nick, Rich, Martin and Mary will be available to partner you during this all-level ice-breaker session. This will be a great opportunity to meet all our pros, schedule private lessons, or just have a fun spin around the rink. Dessert social to follow!

Having a Ball with your Partner

Saturday, 8:30 am

Rich Griffin

Proper positions and good tracking make dancing easier and more enjoyable. Rich will provide you tips on how to achieve this while you and your partner work with a inflated ball between you! This clinic should be a lot of fun along with some good demonstrations on how to get and keep the correct dance frame.

The Expression of Dance Tempos

Saturday, 2:00 pm

Nick Hart

Nick will discuss and demonstrate while we practice dance expression to waltz, tango and blues tempos. Through extension, knee bend and carriage, we will explore various ways to express these different rhythms.

Improve your Glide

Sunday, 8:30 am

Martin Levy

What makes dancers great is the quality of their push, their position and their power. We will focus on the glide that comes from outstanding pushes, aka stroking. We will concentrate on the proper use of the blade, the intensity of the ankle movement and the quietness of the upper body, improving us as dancers.

Santa Fe is 7000 feet above sea level! This means it's a great place to train (we're higher than the mile-high city of Denver!), but it also means that if you're not used to it, you may experience some altitude symptoms like shortness of breath, heart palpitations, nausea, etc. The key is to drink lots of water, which will help oxygenate your blood, and expect to take it a little easy while your body adjusts.

Waiver of Liability

I therefore agree to accept full responsibility for any and all injury or property damage, and agree to make no claim against the Santa Fe Skating Club or any of its members, the Genoveva Chavez Community Center, providers of food and beverage, and respective employees or agents of the above mentioned, for any injury or harm to me, however caused. For the protection and safety of all parties involved, the Santa Fe Skating Club or the staff of the GCCC reserves the right to remove any participant from the premises.
